

LOWER PSYCHISM

Type of Affliction / Entity	Frequency of Attraction	Number Possible	Comments
LUCIFERIC	Lower Psychism	1	Usually undertaken by desire to feel powerful—often done by self-professed “healers.” (Can be attracted by depression and eating disorders.)
	Spirit Summoning	6	Usually undertaken by a desire to feel powerful—often done by self-professed “healers” who believe that they are channeling angels and other higher beings. In spiritualist churches possessions can occur because demons are very clever—they can pretend to be a spirit guide or your Aunt Matilda. (Can be attracted by depression and eating disorders.)
NEGATIVE PLUTO INFLUENCE	Channeling	1	If there is weakness in the body or in the aura <sup>1</sup> , entities can be drawn to a person during certain phases of the moon and under certain configurations of the stars. Imbalances of the chakras attract these non-intelligent energies.
NEGATIVE NEPTUNE INFLUENCE	Moon Rituals	1	Certain constellations of the stars and moon can attract entities if there’s weakness in a person’s aura or physical body. They’re also attracted to imbalance in one’s chakras. (These are non-intelligent energies.)
	Full Moon Rituals	1	Many kinds of dark-force entities are more active during a full moon. A group meeting for prayer or meditation is not harmful—unless there’s a possessed person in the group. However, if drumming, know that the drum vibration was meant to attract lower elementals. <sup>2</sup> This engages the lower chakras and can create misalignment with upper chakras.
WATER LEECHES	Lower Psychism	1	A water leech is one kind of astral leeches—semi-intelligent beings that attach to “drink” a person’s life force. Attracted by low-vibrational-energy thoughts, these usually attach at the base of a person’s neck. Unless a healing facilitator is very holy, avoid letting that person do “aura work” on you.
AIR SPIRITS	Lower Psychism	1	Air spirits can cause many mental & physical afflictions. Hostility, pride, physical weakness & intestinal parasites, including worms—and

<sup>2</sup> “...the new crop of shamans tend to be using methods employed centuries earlier that were designed for the people of their time. Times are different now and heavy drumbeats are not always conducive to the stimulation of the higher chakras, which is what Earth hominids are badly in need of at present. If you are going to pursue the path of primitivism you should divest it of its lower frequencies and address the animal spirits and other communicating intelligences at their more elevated or finer frequencies.” (The Paschats and the Crystal People, by Murry Hope. Thoth Publications, p. 60.)
